

TALK QUESTIONS

Chapter 5 – The Story Yet Told

The future is inevitable. Time never slows nor stops. We are all moving in the same direction – tomorrow. Let's approach our coming days in anticipation of God's provision and blessing. Let's envision our world and our place in the days to come.

Future Hopes

335. What do you hope your children will say of you?
336. What do you hope for your family in 10 years?
337. What do you hope will never happen?
338. What person in your life do you hope you will never lose touch?
339. What do you hope you will find in the future?
340. What scares you the most about the future?
341. What disease do you hope a cure will be found?
342. What three places do you hope to see in the future?
343. What qualities will you look for in your next friendship?
344. What present conflict in your life do you hope for peace?